

“Young India Women Entrepreneurship Mission”

-Promoting Innovation and NewGen Entrepreneurs-

It is matter of proud that India has the world’s largest youth population and every third person in an Indian city today is a youth. Today’s youth who have grown up with personal computers, cell phones and the internet and are now taking their place in a world where the only constant is rapid change. They are well equipped with electronic gadgets, tech savvy, capable to invest sizable amount of capital and to bear risk of challenges.

Keeping in view the enormous and untapped potential of our young Indians for their dream aspirant of entrepreneurship, IBCHAM believes that there is dire need to promote entrepreneurship among youth and transform their stereotype image from job seekers to job creators. Such transformation can also prove as a great boon for the country as it may play a significant role in curbing the challenges Dedicated to the growth of industry

- job scarcity
- launching more innovative products at competitive cost
- reducing dependency over imported products
- improve GDP and export of the country
- Emigration of intellectual manpower and technology
- it may help to turn the government dream projects into reality like- Make in India, Swachh Bharat, Start up India Stand up India, Skill india, Incredible India, Digital India, Beti Bachao Beti Padhao etc. which need a lot of innovation and efforts and our young Indians, Indeed, are capable enough to take up the same.

IBCHAM believes that there is bigger opportunity for women entrepreneurship as they have better inherent entrepreneurship traits and managerial skills.

Promoting women entrepreneurs will not only take the entrepreneurship to the next levels but may also bring socio-economic balance and gender equality across the nation.

With this new and innovative strives, IBCHAM (Indian Business Chamber) in association with Government of India through NITI Aayog, Ministry of Skill Development & Entrepreneurship, Ministry of Youth Affairs, Ministry of Labour & Employment & Ministry of Tourism and Digital India has been on mission to promote entrepreneurship among youth particularly focusing women and cultivate large number of entrepreneurs across the country.

Taking this opportunity, IBCHAM endeavors to organise a series of events on Women Entrepreneurship in different parts of the country beginning with the Delhi-NCR. The key agenda of the events would be to guide the aspiring and budding entrepreneurs on various issues, challenges and opportunities in business.
